INTRODUCTION

I am a passionate designer with extensive freelance, agency and in-house experience. I design and deliver creative concepts along with strategic proposals to support client projects, account growth, and new business opportunities. My strengths lay in managing multiple accounts and developing strong relationships with clients, engaging and directing multi-disciplinary creative teams, articulating the creative strategy, and direction to all stakeholders. My skill set includes; problem solving, innovative storytelling, UI/UX design, illustration and providing art direction across all design and digital platforms.
